

licenses stuff

Yep, this is the point in where all that boring legal stuff comes in. So here it is (yawn)...

All these products are royalty free for use in both personal and commercial projects. With this license, you (as the purchaser) have a non-exclusive, worldwide license that allows you to use these products you have purchased.

Down below is some further details to how this license applies to the use of these purchased products, and everything you need to know if you want to be a nice, law-abiding citizen and not (intentionally or unintentionally) abuse (ouch) the license.

(what you can do... as a good guy)

1. You are licensed to use the product in personal and commercial work. You can create any products for yourself or for your clients. You can use it as many times as you want.
2. You are licensed to use the product in a website or presentation template or application or as part of your design which can be then sold through a marketplace or website without attributions. (However, you cannot resell or redistribute the products in its original form... why, because it is not nice you bad guy.)

licenses stuff

(what you can't do... as a good guy)

1. In its original form, you cannot re-distribute or sell the purchased product as stock or lease it on its own or bundled with other stuff.
2. You cannot re-distribute or sell the product in its original form or with superficial modifications... so no, moving around the layers won't work you rogue!
3. None of the above is allowed even if the re-distribution is free. Nope.

If you're still unclear about what is or isn't allowed under the licenses, or you want any different licence to use our files, you can reach out by filling out the contact form on DesignOverdose.net or by just shooting me... (ouch) a DM @rickschmuck.

(And just a last thought...)
